SUPERSEDING INDICTMENT

COUNT ONE

The Grand Jury for the District of Maryland charges that:

Introduction

1. At times material to this Superseding Indictment, the U.S. Army Communications-Electronics Command ("CECOM") was headquartered at Aberdeen Proving Ground ("APG"), Harford County, Maryland ("MD") and was comprised of approximately 13,000 military, civilian and contract personnel across five subordinate organizations, including the Software Engineering Center.

2. At all times material to this Superseding Indictment, the Program Executive Office Command Control Communications-Tactical ("PEO-C3T"), which was part of the Software Engineering Center, provided computer systems, radios and communications networks to Army personnel worldwide, including Iraq, Afghanistan, Africa, Syria, Pacific Theater and Europe.

3. At all times material to this Superseding Indictment, the Army used Indefinite Delivery Indefinite Quantity ("IDIQ") contracts most often for service contracts and architecture-engineering services. The Army typically chose multiple prime contractors who were able to perform the contract for a fixed number of base years. The Army could then extend the contract for option years.

4. At all times material to this Superseding Indictment, the Army addressed individual requirements on IDIQ contracts by placing a delivery order ("DO") for supplies, or a task order ("TO") for services, against a basic contract. TOs and DOs were typically competitively bid on by the various prime contractors which had been selected at the time of the original IDIQ contract award.

5. In and around March 2006, the U.S. Army Contracting Command ("ACC") at APG awarded a 10-year, $19.2 billion IDIQ contract to seven (7) prime contractors to provide technology services to support the integrated engineering, business operations, and logistics needs for the Army.

6. In and around September 2006, the ACC at APG placed TO 8 for services pursuant to the IDIQ contract described in Paragraph 5.

7. In and around November 2006, the ACC at APG placed TO 11 for services pursuant to the IDIQ contract described in Paragraph 5.

8. In and around July 2009, the ACC at APG placed TO 77 for services pursuant to the IDIQ contract described in Paragraph 5.

9. In and around September 2009, the ACC at APG placed TO 73 for services pursuant to the IDIQ contract described in Paragraph 5.

10. In and around September 2010, the ACC at APG placed TO 24 for services pursuant to the IDIQ contract described in Paragraph 5.

11. In and around April 2011, the ACC at APG placed TO 115 for services pursuant to the IDIQ contract described in Paragraph 5.

12. In and around December 2010, the General Services Administration (“GSA”), awarded a contract for programmatic support services on behalf of the Army and the PEO-C3T (“the GSA contract”).

13. At times material to this Superseding Indictment, JOHN M. KAYS (“J. KAYS”) was a public official; he was a civilian employee of the United States Army who worked in leadership positions for PEO-C3T and represented the Army customer on the IDIQ contracts. Specifically,

a. From April 2008 – March 2010, J. KAYS was the Chief of Systems Engineering for the Project Management Office, Battle Command;

b. From March 2010 – January 2011, J. KAYS was the Project Director for Crypto and Networking Initialization, renamed Tactical Network Initialization;

c. From January 2011 – July 2014, J. KAYS was the Deputy Project Manager for Mission Command, in effect the number two position for Mission Command, until his resignation from government employment.

14. At times material to this Superseding Indictment, DANIELLE N. KAYS (“D. KAYS”), was a public official; she was a civilian employee of the United States Army who worked in leadership positions for PEO-C3T and represented the Army customer on the IDIQ contracts. Specifically,

a. From June 2009 – June 2012, D. KAYS was the Deputy Director, Technical Management Division;

b. From June 2012 – October 2015, D. KAYS was the Product Director of Common Hardware Systems, until her resignation from government employment.

15. At all times material to this Superseding Indictment, D. KAYS and J. KAYS were married and lived together; beginning in 2009, they lived in Bel Air, MD at the KAYS' house.

16. At all times material to this Superseding Indictment, MATTHEW S. BARROW ("BARROW") and his wife were the owners of MJ-6, LLC ("MJ-6"), a limited liability corporation the BARROWs formed in Ohio ("OH") in 2008 to obtain military subcontracts. BARROW was the president of MJ-6.

17. From in and around June 2008 through in and around August 2010, BARROW was also employed as a Procurement Manager/Category Specialist, responsible for batch materials and industrial gases, for a glass company ("the glass company") in Northwood, OH.

18. At all times material to this Superseding Indictment, BARROW lived in Toledo, OH. Beginning in 2010, BARROW worked full time as president of MJ-6.

THE CHARGE

19. From in and around August 2008 to in and around June 2014, in the District of Maryland and elsewhere, the defendants

JOHN M. KAYS, MATTHEW S. BARROW, and DANIELLE N. KAYS

with others known and unknown to the Grand Jury, did knowingly and willfully combine, conspire, and confederate to

a. Defraud the Department of the United States Army by impairing, impeding, and obstructing the lawful government function of the United States Army to procure and manage the procurement of goods and services, in contracting for services for PEO-C3T,

b. Commit offenses against the United States, specifically,

(1) being a public official, to directly and indirectly, corruptly demand, seek, receive, accept and agree to receive and accept anything of value personally and for any other person and entity in return for (a) being influenced in the performance of any official act and (b) being induced to do and omit to do any act in violation of the lawful duty of such official, in violation of Title 18, U.S.C. § 201 (b)(2)(A) and (C).

(2) to, directly and indirectly, corruptly give, offer, and promise anything of value to a public official with intent to influence any official act, and to induce such public official to do or omit to do any act in violation of the lawful duty of such official, in violation of 18 U.S.C. Section 201(b) (1) (A) and (C).

OBJECT OF THE CONSPIRACY

20. It was the object of the conspiracy for J. KAYS and D. KAYS to enrich themselves by using and agreeing to use their official positions and by performing and agreeing to perform a stream of official acts in exchange for a stream of things of value, in the approximate amount of $800,000, going to and for the benefit of J. KAYS and D. KAYS from BARROW.

21. It was a further object of the conspiracy for BARROW to provide things of value to J. KAYS and D. KAYS, intending to influence J. KAYS and D. KAYS to take official actions for the benefit of BARROW and MJ – 6, including steering subcontracts to MJ-6 in the approximate amount of $21 million.

MANNER AND MEANS OF THE CONSPIRACY

22. It was a part of the conspiracy for J. KAYS and D. KAYS to take a stream of official actions favorable to BARROW and BARROW's business MJ – 6 including adding MJ – 6 as a subcontractor acceptable to the Army customer, steering potential employees for government contractors to work for MJ-6, approving MJ-6 employees to work on various Task Orders, and approving the pay rates, status reports and travel reimbursements for MJ-6 employees. The Task

Orders described below were used by J. KAYS and D. KAYS for the benefit of MJ-6:

DATE	OFFICIAL ACTS	ACTOR
August 2008	Influenced a prime contractor to add MJ-6 as a subcontractor to the previously awarded TO 8	J. KAYS
May 2009	Influenced a prime contractor to add MJ – 6 as a subcontractor to the previously awarded TO 11	J. KAYS
July 2009	Influenced a prime contractor to include MJ – 6 as a subcontractor on its TO 77 contract proposal	J. KAYS
